This is the first DVD featuring the exquisite voice of one of Britain's best ever singers Kiki Dee together with the virtuoso guitar of Carmelo Luggeri.

Together they make a unique and distinctive blend of music that takes you on a joyous and sensuous journey. Kiki is not afraid to run through her unrivalled back catalogue, but here, with Carmelo's brilliant playing, it sounds fresh and relevant.

In front of a spellbound audience at the historic film studios by the Thames in Bray, they pull out all the stops in a truly bravura performance.

Extras include a track by track analysis of the songs by Kiki and Carmelo and a live bonus performance at London's Shepherd's Bush Empire in front of a sell-out audience.
